

2013 Sojourn Cellars
Durell Vineyard Chardonnay
Sonoma Coast*95
POINTSby Virginie Boone

Sizzling lemon and Asian pear-tinged acidity give this wine an electricity on the palate that finds its companion in the richer overtones of racy cardamom and nutmeg. The 40% new French oak imparts structure and spice rather than an overt influence, letting the complex stone minerality and depth of fruit linger on the finish.

EDITOR'S CHOICE*2013 Sojourn Cellars
Silver Eagle Vineyard
Pinot Noir, Sonoma Coast*94
POINTSby Virginie Boone

Meticulously farmed by Ulises Valdez, Silver Eagle is intensely spicy and pamperingly lush, offering a distinct, perfumed character on the nose. Structured and almost gamy and sanguine, it's a complex expression of the grape that will benefit from further time in bottle, through 2020, or from an hour or so in the decanter.

EDITOR'S CHOICE*2013 Sojourn Cellars
Russian River Valley
Pinot Noir*94
POINTSby Virginie Boone

In this silky and seductive wine, integrated oak and tannin wrap around liting waves of earth and rose petal, providing plenty of sensory intrigue. From several vineyards, including Wohler, it shines a light on the subtleties that can be coaxed from the appellation, along with a spectacular exuberance.

EDITOR'S CHOICE*2012 Sojourn Cellars
Proprietary Cuvée Cabernet
Sauvignon, Napa Valley*94
POINTSby Virginie Boone

A 100% Cabernet Sauvignon from a number of hillside and valley floor vineyards, including Beckstoffer Georges III, this still-developing wine is delicately layered in soft-grained tannins, a dusty, graphite spark around the mellow red fruit and anise. With a lingering finish, it ends with a touch of Rutherford dust. Cellar through 2020.

CELLAR SELECTION*2013 Sojourn Cellars
Campbell Ranch Vineyard
Chardonnay, Sonoma Coast*94
POINTSby Virginie Boone

From a high-elevation site near the outpost of Annapolis, close to the Mendocino border, this is a briny, salty and soft wine, complex and bristling in acidity, yet possessed of subtle power and finesse. Enjoy now or over time, cellaring through 2018.

CELLAR SELECTION*2013 Sojourn Cellars
Ridgetop Vineyard
Pinot Noir, Sonoma Coast*93
POINTSby Virginie Boone

The fifth vintage from this cool site near Annapolis, the wine is spicy, creamy and on the fuller-bodied end of the spectrum, aromatically rich in baked strawberry and raspberry. Resolved tannins and integrated oak make for a seamless experience, the wine clean, composed and crisp on the finish.
