2015 Sojourn Cellars
Reuling Vineyard,
Sonoma Coast, Pinot Noir

Pale to medium ruby-purple colored, the 2015 Reuling Vineyard Pinot Noir has a fragrant nose of lavender, oolong tea and fertile loam over a red currant and Bing cherry core with a waft of underbrush. The medium-bodied palate is just beautiful with very finely grained tannins and seamless acidity framing the elegant red berry and earthy flavors, finishing with slight minerality.

Drink now through 2024.
