

Wine Spectator

www.winespectator.com

SCORE: 90

2015 Sojourn Cellars Sonoma Coast, Pinot Noir

Young and tight, with a zesty mix of dusty herb and dried and ripe berry flavors, ending with chewy tannins. Though there is much to admire here, this wine is best served by short-term cellaring, as the flavors should be more forthcoming in a year or so.

Drink now through 2023.

—JL