

2007 Sojourn Cellars Pinot Noir
Demuth Vineyard
Anderson Valley

Vineyard: This vineyard sits at 1600 feet elevation on a bench above Anderson Valley northwest of Boonville.

The vines struggle to grow in 18 inches of clay with thick plates of shale beneath. The Wadenswill-2A block was planted in 1990. The Pommard block was t-budded over from 18-year-old Chardonnay vines in 2000.

In 2007 we were able to pick both blocks at the end of October without sacrificing balance due to its cool, coastal micro-climate.

Winemaking:

- 100% destemmed Pinot Noir
