

Wine Spectator

SOJOURN RECEIVES TOP SCORES FROM WINE SPECTATOR

94 Points - 2019 Sangiacomo Vineyard Pinot Noir

This dense red is filled with well-structured dark berry, dried blueberry and cherry flavors that show juicy and loamy richness, with hints of fresh-ground coffee bean. The sumptuous finish is long and focused, with Asian spice overtones.

93 Points - 2019 Gap's Crown Vineyard Pinot Noir

Big and rich, this is filled with juicy spiciness to the dark currant and plum paste flavors that show notes of green olive and fig paste. Ends with decadent ripeness on the finish, with accents of cocoa and cream.

93 Points - 2019 Rodgers Creek Vineyard Pinot Noir

Well-structured dried red berry and cherry flavors show lots of cedar and forest floor accents, backed by firm acidity. Features crisp minerality, with hints of white pepper lingering on the finish.