

SOJOURN RECEIVES TOP SCORES FROM THE NEW WINE REVIEW

95 Points - 2021 Riddle Vineyard Pinot Noir

From a cool coastal site near the town of Occidental, this wine is sinewy in texture, supple and expansive, with layers of complex structure. Rich red and black cherry dominate around a depth of concentration and lengthy tannins.

95 Points - 2021 Reuling Vineyard Pinot Noir

This is a cool-climate vineyard near Forestville that keeps things light and layered in red and blue berry, bramble patch and impressive structure. Bright and effusive on the nose and in texture, it shares lovely hints of cardamom and clove between rose petal.

95 Points - 2021 Sangiacomo Vineyard Pinot Noir

This is from a vineyard farmed by one of Sonoma County's great grape growing families, one that has served as a vineyard-designate from the producer's beginnings. In the path of the Petaluma Gap's fog, it displays tight-grained tannins and earthy layers of forest and game, with brooding black fruit accented in sizzling acidity.

94 Points - 2021 Gap's Crown Vineyard Pinot Noir

From the iconic site, cooled by Petaluma Gap winds, this wine is rich and ripe in dark berry fruit, spiced plum and dark cherry. Velvety and supple in texture, it is bold, rounded and balanced, with an acid profile that compels and complement.

94 Points - 2021 Durell Vineyard Chardonnay

Layered, structured and high-toned, this white features highlights of anise, wet stone and earth, with lively flavors of citrus and green apple. Complex, it is fresh and lifted throughout, making for a compelling experience that changes and evolves as it opens.

93 Points - 2021 UV Lucky Well Vineyard Pinot Noir

Crisp and grippy, this full-bodied wine is hearty in dark tannin, oak and power, with lasting spice. The aromatics intensify as it opens, accentuating the rich red fruit.

92 Points - 2021 Wohler Vineyard Pinot Noir

This wine is deep in structure and tannin, sourced from a site in Forestville rich in fluffy Goldridge soils. The resulting wine is concentrated and intense in cola and dark cherry, with lasting earth and forest complementing in savory character.

91 Points - 2022 Rosé of Pinot Noir

From coastal grapes, this wine is a darker shade of pale, with well-defined flavors of dark cherry and limeade. Offering girth and freshness, it will pair well with food, finishing in earth and dried herb.
